Michael Butler of 2653 Windwood Drive spoke in favor of the application for tax exemption for Habitat for Humanity. He stated all of the properties meet the eight standards in City Code 27-32(C). He answered Council's previous questions regarding tax exemption requests in the future on these properties and tax exemptions granted in other localities. Mr. Butler reminded Council the Habitat for Humanity ReStore puts $35,000 of sales tax into the local economy each year plus $7,000 in real estate taxes.

Greg Hutchinson of 2187 Apple Pie Ridge spoke in regards to a court case referenced in the application and whether the case, *Mariners Museum v.
